A crowd is expected from the outside. Mr. Prentice says that rates will be given on the main line and possibly there will be excursions over the V & T and the N.C.O.

Will Develop the Lower Levels.

The Eureka Con. Company recently had the air compressor and engine which is in place at the 900-foot level of its mine, overhauled and put in working order. These improvements have made it possible for prospecting work to be done below that level. W. Laird and Thomas Cardue of Ruby Hill secured a pitch in the mine shortly after these repairs had been made and recently encountered some very promising ore on the 1000-foot level. The improvements already made will permit the working of the mine to some of its lower levels. At present there are thirty-five men tributary in the mine.—Sentinel.

Thursday's Excursion to Sierra Valley.

The excursion to Beckwith Sunday promises to be well patronized and a pleasant day is in prospect. The good people of Sierra Valley are doing all in their power to prepare a hospitable greeting to the visitors. This excursion will be the formal opening of the Boca and Loyaltan railroad to traffic. For full particulars of the excursion see the advertisement in another column or inquire of E. H. Prentice, Freight and Passenger Agent of the Reno Division.

THE RIVER WILL BE BENEFITTED

Artificial Propagation of Trout will Restock the Stream.

Editor Journal—I learn that some of our people now have it to say that the spawn taken from our streams and planted outside our State does not benefit or tend to improve or advance our fishing interests.

Inasmuch as the State of Nevada makes no appropriation for the maintenance of a hatchery—we must depend upon natural propagation to meet the demand for fish to eat, and this cannot and will not do. Fish culture is now such a science as should convince the most sceptical that the art of artificial propagation of fish is most practical and, is the only means today, by which we can increase the supply beyond its natural limits sufficiently to meet the necessities of a constantly increasing population.

We will allow one million eggs to be deposited in the natural way at a fertilization of 5 per cent, and that not more than 2 per cent of the eggs hatch, from the hatching period until the Alvine is a swimming fry, there is a very great diminution in the wild stream, as they are a dainty morsel to all water animals and insects, and an easy prey to every passing spoiler, and the wonder is not that so many perish, but that any survive at all.

Again allowing one million eggs to be artificially taken at a fecundation of 50 per cent, and that they are hatched at a loss of less than 2 per cent, reared and protected against the merciless water animals and insects, until they are swimming fry, and then put on their own resources.

Is this not a very great increase over that of natural propagation?

While it is true that the writer will keep from the streams 80 per cent of all eggs taken, it is equally true that 20 per cent will be hatched and the swimming fry planted in return, an increase of more than 18 per cent on that of the contrary.

Fishing, unsupported by fish culture, will soon destroy a cheap and healthful food. In Washoe County fishing is considered good, and it should be made better for the time is close when a number of our people will open the chief means of their livelihood to the visiting sportsmen—and there will be an earlier and better prospect for the market fishermen and sportsmen anglers if they will also join hands in the hearty support of fish culture and acknowledge that it is for, and not against, their interests.

Interesting Discourse.

Dr. McKenzie delivered an interesting lecture in the opera house last evening on "Scottish Characteristics." A large and appreciative audience was present. The speaker possesses an endless fund of anecdote and witticisms. There was much in the discourse that was instructive as well as entertaining.

Items Regarding Religious Work in This City.

BAPTIST—Last Sunday was one of the best days we've had at our church this fall.

The Sunday School was a record-breaker in numbers; and the congregations at both services were large and attentive.

The male quartette is attracting considerable attention and is much appreciated by our congregation.

Dr. Heuson, the celebrated lecturer and preacher, who has been pastor of the First Baptist Church of Chicago for twenty years, has resigned to accept a call to the Hanson Place Church, Brooklyn, New York.

Prof. Gregory, principal of public schools of Dayton, Nevada, spent Sunday in Reno and was a worshipper at our church.

Mr. Gregory is attending the teachers' institute in Wadsworth this week. Mr. and Mrs. Sample, members of the First Baptist Church of Los Angeles have moved to Reno to make it their home. They will receive a cordial welcome at our church as will all other strangers who come.

Mr. and Mrs. Spinning, recently of San Francisco, are now located in Reno, and are much appreciated attendants at our church.

This week with its Thanksgiving service at the Congregational Church, (which service we hope large numbers of our people and many others will attend), special Evangelistic services at our church every night and several important committee meetings, is to be a very busy one.

We noticed an editorial in The Journal last week that we feel like commending.

It referred in terms of censure to a statement made by Prof. Powers, who has the chair of Sociology, in Cornell University. Prof. Powers is said to have recommended the killing off of the feeble-minded and other unfortunate members of society for the sake of the general good.

Such a statement is not only barbarous but it is unsound as a means to the desired end. The American Indians have had similar customs for ages and who will say that this and other uncivilized practices has not had more to do than anything else with their rapid approach toward extinction? The more humane and generous we are toward those of feeble mind and frail body, the smaller will be the per cent of the infirm.

Remember the special meetings every night this week.

VOLUNTEERS OF AMERICA—No meeting was held in the armory in Reno on Sunday, the officers having gone to Verdi, where an interesting meeting was held in the Baptist church. The church was well filled. Charles Powning, superintendent of the C. E. Society, introduced the Volunteers to the audience. Lieutenant Myrtle Ash led the testimony meeting and many of the people present joined her in the same.

Captain Hogenson read the lessons and spoke. The audience showed great interest in the meeting, gave a liberal collection and invited the Volunteers to come back soon. The people enjoyed the instrumental music by the trio and the best of good will was manifested.

Another Damage Suit Is on Trial.

The case of Tizian et al. vs. the N.C.O. railway came up for trial yesterday in the District Court.

This is an action brought by the plaintiffs to recover damages in the sum of $2535 for stock killed in a wreck a few months ago. Some difficulty was experienced in securing a jury after which the balance of the day was taken up in arguing law points. Evidence will be introduced today.

Another Lodge Instituted.

The organization was under the supervision of State Deputy H. C. Gambill and District Deputy C. B. Laughlin. This is the second camp organized in the State, the first camp having been organized at Gardnerville early in the present month. The membership at large now numbers over six hundred and fifty thousand.

Nevada's Two New Railroads.

Seventy-five carloads of steel rails for the San Pedro road are on their way from the east. This looks very much as though Senator Clark intended to build through Nevada. In fact it may be taken for granted. On the other hand the big combinations behind the Short Line, including the Union Pacific, are not going to let Clark run through without opposition, so Nevada will certainly have two new railroads without a terminal in the State.

Jolly Time at the Masquerade Ball.

If you do not attend the masquerade ball Thursday evening you will miss some noted visitors who will be in Reno on that occasion. Mrs. Katzenjammer and her kids, Happy Hoolligan, Alphonse a la Carte and Gaston Table de Hote, together with many other notables will be at the ball.

The flooring is completed and is a beauty. The hall is three times as large as any other in the State and will be well lighted and heated.

MINING IN THIS STATE

Culled News of Nevada's Most Important Industry.

Last week's ore shipment from Eureka were 146 tons and from White Pine 26 tons.

Five copper claims near Yerington have been bonded for $40,000 payable in nine months.

The total value of the ore extracted from the Con. Cal. & Va. mine last week was $155,486.31.

The Rocco-Homestake mine at Hamilton, White Pine county, has been shut down for the winter.

There is talk of establishing an ore reduction and smelting plant on the Carson river, near Dayton.

The sulphur mines in Humboldt county near Black Rock desert, are delivering 20 tons daily of the refined product at Humboldt county.

The Lizard mill on the Carson river is working a daily average of 15 tons of ore from the mine of that name. Twenty men are employed in the mine and mill.—Report.

A big enterprise has been launched at Elv. White Pine county, whereby fifty copper claims have been bonded to an eastern syndicate with a capitalization reaching away up into the millions. Mr. McGill made the deal and the claims bonded by him lie in the heart of the mineral belt of old White Pine.

WHY IS IT?

THAT THE NOVELTY DRY GOODS STORE has increased their trade from month to month since they began to do business with the people of Washoe County and vicinity? Because they buy the best and sell at the lowest margin of profits. Why can they sell cheaper than any other dry goods house? FIRST, They do not have to hire help; SECOND, Their expenses are very low for the amount of business they are doing; THIRD, They discount all their bills, which is quite an item of gain in one year; FOURTH, They do not add the freight charges to their goods, which is quite a per cent in favor of their customers; FIFTH, They do not want to get rich in a few years—only to make a nice living and treat our customers right every time. In a short time they will have on display a full line of holiday goods. Look for our ad in The Journal, and show windows from the first to the ninth.

JOHN H. DENNIS, Editor

MR. BRYAN ON SENATOR J. P. JONES' APOSTASY.

SENATOR JONES, of Nevada, has by his return to the Republican party, given much joy to the gold organs, both Republicans and Democrats. He claims to be as firm a believer in bimetalism as when he left the Republican party, but says that the enormous output of gold "has accomplished what bi-metalism would have accomplished," and that silver is dead. He adds that he has been in harmony with the Republican party on all other issues, and can, therefore, easily return. It is true that the Senator from Nevada, distinguished by his great service in behalf of bimetalism, has been in harmony with the Republican party on all questions save the silver question alone, and therefore his apostasy at this time is not surprising, although much to be regretted.

If Senator Jones will review the arguments which he himself has made, he will be convinced that the output of gold has not been sufficient to accomplish "what bimetalism would have accomplished." The restoration of bimetalism would have raised silver to $1.29 an ounce; it would have brought into full monetary use throughout the world four billions of silver which has been constantly legislated against. It would have raised prices to the former bimetallic level and placed the business of the world on a solid basis. The output of gold has not done this, and a mere matter of mathematics will demonstrate that it will require a great many years for the present output to furnish a quantity of gold sufficient to accomplish "what bimetalism would have accomplished." But before gold can be used to take the place of silver we must subtract from the annual product, first, enough for use in the arts; second, enough to cover lost coins and abrasion, and third, enough to furnish the gold using nations with the annual increase necessary to keep pace with the demand for money. When Senator Sherman was defending the act of 1890, known as the Sherman law, he argued that we needed fifty-four millions of new money every year to keep pace with population and industry. If that quantity is necessary for this country alone, what sum would be sufficient to supply all the gold using nations of the world?

The financiers of all countries oppose any permanent rise in prices because that would lessen the purchasing power of the dollar, and depreciate the exchange value of their money and securities. If they thought there was any danger of the gold supply being sufficient to accomplish "what bimetalism would have accomplished," they would have been clamoring for the use of gold and the retirement of uncovered paper, and, finally, they would demand a limitation of the coinage of gold. There has been a rise in the level of prices since '96, but a part of this is a natural rebound after panic conditions, part was due to the prevailing wars, and part to the manipulation of prices by trusts. We have not yet reached normal conditions, and therefore, cannot say how much the general level of prices will be increased by the output of gold. We do know, however, that gold has not raised, and probably will not raise prices to anything like the bimetallic level. We cannot accept the gold standard as final until we are sure that we have gold enough not only for the nations that now use it, but for the nations that will be ultimately driven to it if the United States surrenders its contention for bimetalism. Where would the three hundred million people of India and the four hundred million people of China secure gold if they were to go to the gold standard? What nation has any considerable gold to spare?

It is evident that Nevada's Senator has reached a point where his interest in other policies of the Republican party outweigh his attachment for bimetalism. The fact that he is not alarmed by the Republican advocacy of a "branch bank" an "asset currency," and trusts, or by the corporate domination and the imperial policy of the Republican party, shows that devotion to silver was due more to the fact that he came from a mining State than to any broad and deep sympathy with the masses of the people. If his belief in bimetalism had grown out of his desire to see the government administered according to the doctrine of "equal rights to all and special privileges to none," no increase in the production of gold could have carried him back to the Republican party. He gained his reputation as a champion of the rights of the people on one question—the money question. Let us see if he ever makes a speech in favor of the present Republican policies that will compare with the speech which he made in denunciation of the gold standard.—The Commoner.

THE CHICAGO SCRIPTURAL REVISION.

SOME queer people in Chicago have reached the conclusion that the Scriptures need revising and made over into Chicago English. The idea of attempting to improve on the Bible strikes any student of that book as something more than ridiculous.—Carson Appeal.

The men who prepared the new edition of the Bible are eminent scholars. They have not undertaken to revise the translation, but to put the Scriptures in a form more readily understood. They think it deplorable that the language of the Bible is in the English of 300 years ago. Whether the revision is an improvement is altogether a matter of taste. We have been accustomed to read in the Bible one of its beautiful passages thus:

"Consider the lilies how they grow; they toil not, they spin not, and yet I say unto you that Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these.

If then God so clothe the grass which is today in the field and tomorrow is cast into the oven; how much more will he clothe you, O ye of little faith?"

A new edition of the Bible in "modern" English has been published in which the above passage appears thus:

"Think of the lilies how they grow. They neither toil nor spin; yet I tell you even Solomon in all his grandeur was not robed like one of them. If then God dresses in this way, the very wild flowers, which are living today and will be used for the oven tomorrow, how much more will he do the same for you, you men of small faith?"

Then again, the Lord's prayer. Anyone who wants to be welcome to use the Chicago edition, but most of us will not feel like retiring to our closets and using the following invocation:

"Our heavenly Father, May thy Name be held holy, Thy kingdom come, and Thy will be done, on earth as in heaven. Give us today our bread for the day before us, And forgive us our debts, as we, too, have forgiven our debtors; and do not take us into temptation, but rescue us from evil."

There are but few words in the old or new Testament that are obsolete, or not easily understood, and in our layman's opinion the revisers could better employ the time and learning explaining the few obscure words and sentences than in attempting to modernize the Word of God.

NOTICE OF COPARTNERSHIP.

State of Nevada, County of Washoe. We, the undersigned, do hereby certify that we are partners doing business under the name of the Reno Cabinet and Novelty Company, for the purpose of doing general woodworking, cabinet making and repairing, and that the names of all the partners are: A. B. McKinley and E. C. Hilsinger; that the residences of both parties to the said copartnership are in said town of Reno, that said copartnership began on the twenty-fifth day of November, 1901, and is to continue for the term of ten years.

In witness whereof we have hereunto set our hands, this twenty-fifth day of November, A. D., 1901.

A. B. MCKINLEY
E. C. HILSINGER

Dated Reno, Nevada, November 25th, 1901.

Financial Talk No. 2.

JUST AN IDEA—If Mrs. Brown comes to the establishment of Mr. Smith and buys a quarter's worth of goods for twenty cents, she makes a saving of five cents, probably she has other purchases on which there are savings, so that in the spending of two or three dollars she will have saved forty-five or fifty cents. If she paid the full amount for these goods, and has the same credited on a little pass book or punched on a card, and then on that amount she drew interest, the same as the Building and Loan Company, she would fully appreciate the advantage of dealing with that firm. If this merchant continued to give values through the year on each of which there was a saving, it would be natural to suppose that in the course of a year some of the patrons of that store would save many dollars and if this was credited on a book and interest paid at the first of January of each year the same as the Building and Loan Company, there would certainly be a furor over the doling of the establishment, especially at the time when the interest was credited to the customers.—Advertising World.

The Phoenix has a better proposition for you than the above. We have contracts aggregating $500,000.00 at present in existence at Stockton. We loan money at moderate rates of interest on a definite contract to be returned in monthly installments. We receive deposits in either small or large amounts to be paid monthly in regular or irregular payments or deposited in one lump at one time, on which deposits we guarantee and pay fixed rates of interest, according to the plan accepted, from five to ten per cent per annum. Deposits received from three dollars up.

No. 4 will give you some entertaining and instructive statistics.

Note our strong board of directors: A. A. Watkins, vice-president W. W. Montague & Company, and president San Francisco Board of Trade; Charles R. Bishop, vice-president Bank of California; S. Prentiss Smith, assistant Cashier Bank of California; George C. Boardman, general agent Aetna Fire Insurance Company, and director San Francisco Savings Union; Charles E. Ladd, Ladd & Tilton, bankers of Portland, Oregon; Gavin McNab, attorney at law, San Francisco; Clarence Grant, late Building and Loan Commissioner, Montana.

Reno payments may be made at the Washoe County Bank.
